

General terms and conditions of online sales

(only valid for Europe)

1. By clicking on the "Buy this artwork" button, the interested party shows his/her willingness to purchase the work described at the price indicated.
2. The interested party is then contacted by the Belgian Gallery in order to finalize the sale
3. The invoice is sent by the Belgian Gallery to the buyer. After receipt of the payment, the delivery is organized
4. The delivery is made by the Belgian Gallery, under its entire responsibility, and at its expense if it takes place in Belgium. For any delivery outside Belgium, an estimate is communicated to the purchaser at the time of the first contact
5. If the delivered work does not correspond to the description or expectations of the buyer, the latter has the right to cancel the sale within 15 days of delivery. However, he shall bear the cost of transporting the work back. The cost of this transport will also be communicated to him at the time of the first contact
6. Upon delivery, a condition report of the work will be signed by the parties
7. As soon as the work is delivered, it is at the purchaser's risk and expense. The latter is responsible for it in such a way that if the work is damaged or stolen, he will not be able to cancel the sale
8. In case of cancellation, the reimbursement of the work will be made within 15 days from the return of the work and after verification of the condition of the work in comparison with the condition report of the work as established at the time of delivery
9. The Belgian Gallery will provide a certificate of authenticity at the time of delivery of the work, thus guaranteeing its responsibility as a professional in the field of art
10. Each person who wants to buy an artwork is expected to act on his or her own behalf and in his or her own name
